I understand that: 1) participation in Chino Corporate Challenge is entirely voluntary; 2) participation exposes me to the potential for injury, death, property damage and loss; 3) my signature below is my acceptance of any and all associated risks. I acknowledge that participation is not an expectation of employment, either expressed or implied, and my participation or non-participation will have no affect on my employment status, earnings, or other compensation.

I attest to the fact that I am legally competent to understand and accept the associated risks; and, I agree not to pursue legal action against the City of Chino, the Chino Corporate Challenge Committee, the Chino Valley Unified School District, all event sponsors and all other participating organizations for any matters arising as a result of my participation in Chino Corporate Challenge for whatever cause including the active or passive negligence of the aforementioned entities and organizations and their officers, employees, agents or representatives. This assumption of risk is binding on my heirs.

Also, I give permission to the City of Chino to take photographs or videos of me during Chino Corporate Challenge to be used for promotional purposes, advertising and other print and video materials, which are the sole property of the City of Chino.

I have carefully read this release and fully understand its contents. I understand that it is a full release of all liability and I sign it of my own free will.
